WELCOME TO WORSHIP TODAY! Trusting in the Lord brings amazing results. In the Old Testament today, a woman trusted in God’s promise spoken through Elijah and shared the last of her food with Him. Her flour and oil jars never ran out. In the New Testament the poor woman gave all that she had as an offering. We don’t read of any specific promise made to her that day nor do we read what happened to her afterward, but only the complete faith she had that God would provide would have led her to make such an offering. Our trust is also reflected in the choices that we make. These stories did not take up much room in the bible, but we can learn a lot from them. If you are our guest, we pray that you find the Spirit of God alive and moving in our congregation. We rejoice that you joined us in that Spirit today. Please come again!

THIS WEEK’S LESSONS AND PRAYER RESPONSE:

1 Kings 17: 8 - 16, Hebrews 9: 24 –28, Mark 12: 38 - 44

Sermon Theme: “The Widow’s Might”

Sermon Text: Mark 12: 38 - 44

Prayer Bid & Response:

Pastor: Let us pray to the Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

As we enter to worship, let us gather in quiet contemplation and prayer. To worship is to quicken the conscience by the holiness of God, to feed the mind with the truth of God, to purge the imagination by the beauty of God, to pen the heart to the love of God, to devote the will to the purpose of God.

(Archbishop William Temple)

THE SERVICE OF THE WORD

THE HYMN: “We Sing for All the Unsung Saints” – Burg. 678

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Pastor: We begin our worship in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen

Pastor: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

People: But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(Silence for reflection on God’s Word and for self-examination.)

Pastor: Let us confess our sins to God our Father.

People: Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

Pastor: Almighty God in his mercy has given his Son to die for you and for his sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen

THE SHARING OF THE PEACE

Pastor: The Peace of the Lord be with you,

Cong: and also with you.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY:

Almighty and ever-living God,
You have given exceedingly great and precious promises to those who trust in You.
Grant us so firmly to believe in You Son Jesus that our faith may never be found wanting;
through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord,
who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

PASSING THE BATON-ALTAR FLOWER MINISTRY

One of the many behind the scenes roles that Roxann fulfilled was the weekly placement of altar flowers when members ordered them, along with the Christmas poinsettias and the Easter plants. As of February, this needs to be taken over.

The proposed idea is a group of 4/5 people who will take care of the weekly display on a rotational basis and work together to deal with the two big holidays. IF you are at all interested or want to know more details, please contact the OFFICE- (email and phone) BY Nov. 30th- Roxann will coach the group to get them started.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Thanks to all who subscribed to send the OCC boxes. We've covered them all. Look in your mailbox for your contribution envelope and place it in the offering plate.

NAME TAGS

Just a reminder, the devotions should be in by November 20. If you have any questions, please contact Kathy Chapman. And even if you didn't sign up, you can still write something for us. We need forty devotions and would love to have Yours be one of them!

A THOUGHT FROM THE PRAYER TEAM
“Everyday Disciples, Sharing Christ, Changing Lives!”

There are times that it can be very hard to walk as a Christian in today's society. So many distractions come tumbling your way that it may seem like you are a salmon fighting to swim upstream! Some of us have a daily struggle balancing doing what makes us happy, taking care of responsibilities and living our lives in a manner that glorifies God. A couple of ways to help yourself focus is to read, meditate on or study scripture each day. You may find more direction in your life if you start and end each day in prayer talking with your heavenly Father. He loves to hear from you.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.” Proverbs 3:5-6
